The Republican.

FEBRUARY 14, 1885.

By private letter from Senator W. J. Alexander we learn that he has been obstructing the passage in the senate of Mr. Curry's stock law bill for Talladega county, on the ground that such a law would work a great hardship on the farmers on the southern line of Calhoun, by forcing them to fence their stock in to the no fence district of Talladega, or suffer the annoyance and expense of having their cattle and hogs constantly impounded for depreeding upon said district. This bill should have been so amended in the House as to provide that the farmers of Talladega county in the stock law district, should maintain a line fence between their district and farm lands of Calhoun on the southern boundary; but since this was not done, Senator Alexander is doing precisely right to oppose the passage of the bill through the Senate, unless the Talladega members will consent to some such fair arrangement. The farmers of south Calhoun owe Senator Alexander thanks for his thoughtful action in this regard, and will sustain him in continued opposition to the bill, even to the extent of its defeat, rather than submit to it as it stands, full as it is of hardship, vexation, loss and lawsuits to them.

The Legislature will adjourn sine die Monday, and many members will return to their constituents to explain how it is they did not do all the great things they promised during the campaign. It is sad to relate, but many of them will retire to private life, labeled by the people, "weighed in the balances and found wanting"—wanting in capacity, wanting in fidelity to the people who trusted them, wanting in that manly firmness that can resist the soft blandishments of a paid lobby, wanting in truth, wanting in all the essential elements that go to make up a true representative of the people. Poor fellows, let them pass—into obscurity.

The Senate committee has reported adversely upon the House bill to provide for the election of superintendent of education in Calhoun county, and has stricken Calhoun from another bill of similar import introduced for Covington county and to which Calhoun was added in the House. Since the Senate has set down on these bills, it is more than likely that aspirants for this position will have to undergo the critical investigation of Education as to their competency and acceptability to the people, and not depend upon getting into the office on a minority vote, in a scrub race, with several candidates in the field. It is hard on the blatherskites, but it is mighty fair to the people.

Wednesday, in the presence of both houses of Congress, the President of the Senate opened and counted the electoral vote for President and Vice President of the United States, and declared that Cleveland and Hendricks had received a majority of the votes of the whole number of electors, for the offices of President and Vice President respectively. The count was witnessed by packed galleries and there was a manifestation of relief and applause at the close, as it had been rumored the vote of New York would be contested. This settles it.

The bill authorizing the town of Jacksonville to issue new bonds in lieu of the old bonds now due, is now a law. This bill has the sanction of the bondholders, and by their consent the interest rate is reduced from eight to five per cent. The bonds are to run twenty years. It speaks well for the credit of the town when her creditors voluntarily extend her time for payment and at the same time make three per cent. reduction in the rate of interest on her bonds. They take her new bonds at par.

A bill is now under consideration to divide the State into nine judicial circuits. As the matter now stands Calhoun and Cleburne will go with the ninth circuit. Chancellor McSpadden offered an amendment to this effect in the Senate and it was adopted.

A bill is pending to make the salaries of Solicitors $2,500 per annum, and let the fees which they now get go into the treasury. It was stated in debate in the Senate the other day that the fees they collected would pay both the salaries of the Judges and the Solicitors.

Wednesday the Senate passed a bill to punish public drunkenness of any officer of the State. It has yet to pass the Senate before it becomes a law.

The House passed a bill last Wednesday to increase the appropriation to the colored normal school at Huntsville from $2,000 to $4,000. A bill has also passed to increase the appropriation for the colored normal school at Marion.

Those sanguine souls who felicitously predicted that the present Legislature would abolish the normal schools, probably realize by this time how little they knew of the situation. It is more becoming in a man to boast when taking off his armor than when putting it on.

The one tenth of one per cent. tax in the new road law for Madison county to which Calhoun was added, will raise between two and three thousand dollars a year from real estate for road purposes in this county.

The bill repealing the crop lien law, which passed the House before the recess, came up in the Senate Wednesday, and was debated at great length, and finally went over until Thursday. As we close the paper we do not know the fate of the bill. The vote on it will be close.

A joint resolution to amend the Constitution so as to allow the Legislature in future to sit seventy-five working days, instead of fifty, as now, has passed the House by a vote of 60 yeas to 23 nays. The bill has yet to pass the Senate by a two-thirds vote. In that event, the people will vote on the proposition at the next general election.

The Governor has appointed Col. James Aiken, of Gadsden, Judge of the new Ninth Judicial Circuit, and John A. Lusk, a young lawyer, of Guntersville, solicitor. Good appointments both.

We return thanks to Gen. Forney for daily copies of the Congressional Record, and to the State Superintendent of Education for a copy of the Report of his department for the year ending Sept. 30, 1884.

A bill has passed in the Legislature to submit to a popular vote in Shelby county the proposition to make Calera the county seat instead of Columbiana. Now look out for a bitter sectional contest, and rent and divided county where once all was peace and unity for the public good.

In the House, Wednesday, Mr. Greene, of St. Clair, from the committee on education, reported a substitute for the bill to lay off and establish a separate school district, to be composed of parts of township 12, range 7, and township 12, range 8 in Etowah and Calhoun counties. The substitute was adopted and the bill passed. It has yet to pass the Senate before it becomes a law.

ATLANTA, October 13, 1884. We began handling B. B. B. from its first existence, a few months ago, and have never heard a word of dissatisfaction expressed relative to its merits, but have heard it very extensively praised by those who have used it. Its sale with us is rapidly increasing, and we now buy it in three gross lots.

OFFICE OF JACOBS' PHARMACY, ATLANTA, June 13, 1885. Six months ago we had no demand for B. B. B., but now our retail demand is such that we are forced to buy in two gross lots. We attribute this rapid increase in demand to the enormous size and price of the B. B. B., and its positive merit. It sells well and gives our customers entire satisfaction. Our sales have increased 50 per cent. within a few months.

JACOBS' PHARMACY, Per Fred B. Palmer, M. D.

ATLANTA, June 12, 1885. We have been handling B. B. B. only a few months, and take pleasure in saying it is superseding all other Blood Remedies. It sells well, gives our customers entire satisfaction, and we cheerfully recommend it in preference to any other Blood Purifier.

ASHES & MOORE, Druggists.

ATLANTA, June 12, 1885. During the past few months I have given B. B. B. several tests in the case of Blood Diseases, and unhesitatingly pronounce it a safe, sure, harmless and specifically good Purifier, fully meriting the confidence of the public. My customers are delighted with its effects, and the demand has so wonderfully increased that I have been compelled to buy in the gross, as it is the only reliable method of procuring it in large quantities.

ATLANTA, June 12, 1885. We find the sale of B. B. B. largely on the increase, and our friends further consider it desirable. One of the best-selling medicines in the South.

NO WOUNDS. A MAN WHO SUFFERED MENTAL AND PHYSICAL AGONY EIGHT YEARS PROCLAIMS HIS HAPPINESS. Mental agony is dreadful, but when that and physical distress are added, it is simply terrible. Such was the condition of Geo. W. Hampton, of Huntington, W. Va., for eight years. He was a sufferer of eczema—that is, the leg bone at the ankle was inflamed and mortified, which caused the size of a silver three cent piece came out of the sores on my leg. The discharge from the sores was almost continual, and I was unable to walk. For eight years I have been doctoring. I had been under the treatment of a physician at Newport, Ky., for a year; another at Burlington, O., attended me for three years, and a doctor here at Huntington worked with me for a long time. None of them did me any good, and they all finally said my case was hopeless. A few months ago I commenced trying PERUNA, and now I am well. I can walk, and my body, mind and nerves are in perfect health.

Mr. A. Lusk, of West, Ohio, writes: "Dr. HARTMAN, Columbus, O. I have been a great sufferer from that dreaded disease, chronic catarrh of the stomach, and it has done me more harm than all the doctors' prescriptions, and I have used legions of them. Mr. Edgar Harte, Smeltzer P. O., Elk county, Pa., writes: "I have bought several bottles of your PERUNA, and find it to be of great benefit. I also gave it to some of my friends; they experienced the same result."

Mr. L. R. Wollen, 45 and 47 Ross street, Pittsburg, Pa., writes: "I am taking PERUNA with good results, and can highly recommend it to all. I have applied at the different drug stores for one of your books. They claim they have no hand at present. Please do me the favor to send me one."

W. W. Russell, druggist, Chambersburg, Pa., writes: "I handle your PERUNA, and have a great many customers. I am building up the system. I recommend it as a safe and reliable remedy. Calista Fisher, Malvern, Ohio, writes: "I take pleasure in recommending the use of PERUNA and MANNA to any one afflicted with any form of lung or bronchial trouble. I have been for some time afflicted with a very troublesome cough, but a few bottles of PERUNA entirely cured me."

PHYSICIANS AND DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND IT. BROWN'S IRON BITTERS. THE BEST TONIC. This medicine, combining iron with pure vegetable tonics, quickly and completely cures Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Weakness, Impure Blood, Malaria, Chills and Fevers, and Neuralgia. It is an unfailing remedy for Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver. It is prescribed for Diseases peculiar to Women, and all who lead sedentary lives. It does not irritate the bowels, cause headache or produce constipation, as other Iron Medicines do. It enriches and purifies the blood, stimulates the appetite, builds up the system of food, relieves heartburn and belching, and strengthens the muscles and nerves. For Intermitting Fevers, Lassitude, Lack of Energy, etc., it has no equal. The genuine has a red trade mark and crossed red lines on wrapper. Take no cheap imitations. Made by BROWN CHEMICAL CO., BALTIMORE, MD.

Two of our printers have been sick almost the entire week and it has been impossible to replace them. Hence this paper is gotten out with great difficulty and after much vexation of spirit. Trump printers never happen along just when they are needed. They will turn up in large force though as soon as our printers are well and at their cases, and will draw their nights lodging and meals and a bit of money to help them to get forward with cheerful serenity.

Ullman Brothers, Anniston, are closing out their entire stock at and below cost.

Let Jacksonville business men all pull together on any given proposition to build up the town and then let everybody else living in the town come to their support to the full extent of their ability and things will move right ahead every time. Each man living in a community owes something to it, and the extent of the debt is measured only by his means. A stingy town, like a stingy man, can never prosper except in a very small way.

Destroy that Sign.—One may feel that he's getting old, but he naturally dislikes that anything about his appearance should advise others of the fact. Yet nothing does this so effectively as thin and falling hair. No woman wants to marry a man, and business firms hesitate to employ a man, who shows late to curling hair. Parker Hair Balsam is worth to you, in this regard, more than its weight in diamonds. Use it, and have plentiful and glossy hair. Many have had every trace of grayness removed and bald spots covered by using a single bottle.

Black and colored cashmeres at 35cts, at Ullman Bros.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.—The BEST SALVE in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Fever Sores, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all Skin Eruptions, and positively cures Piles. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. dec13

Don't fail to call on Ullman Bros., Anniston, and you will save money.

Portunes for Farmers and Mechanics.—Thousands of dollars can be saved by using proper judgment in taking care of the health of yourself and family. If you are bilious, have sallow complexion, poor appetite, low and depressed spirits, and generally debilitated, do not delay a moment, but go at once and procure a bottle of those wonderful Electric Bitters, which never fail to cure, and that for the trifling sum of fifty cents—Try one. Sold by all druggists at 50c. A heavy fall of snow occurred here Thursday. The snow fall lasted several hours and covered the ground to the depth of several inches.

Stonewall Jackson's war horse passed Jacksonville some days ago en route to the New Orleans Exposition. The noble animal had a car to itself and was treated with great consideration. Gen. Jackson was riding this horse when he received his death wound.

Commissioners court met Monday and was in session until Thursday. Much work of value to the county was disposed of. The present Court is a progressive and wide awake body of men, fully alive to the interests of the county and meticulously careful of the county revenues. They avoid waste on the one hand and stinginess on the other, and so far have pursued a conservative middle course, that will doubtless prove acceptable to the people. As the taxes are collected from the people to be spent for the benefit of the people, we do not think this court would shrink from expenditures sufficient to secure permanent and enduring benefits to the county. The difficulty with most Commissioners' courts is they do too much patch work, going upon the idea of present expediency. This course in the long run is always most expensive.

The Doctor's Last Happy Resort.—EVANSVILLE, Ind., Jan. 11, 1882. I recently had a very difficult case of Consumption. I treated it in the most scientific manner possible, but to no effect; patient grew gradually worse. Rather than give up, and as a last resort, I decided, much against my wish, to use a remedy that had cured one of my former patients. Greatly to my surprise, the patient began to gain, and in a much shorter time than I dared to expect, she was completely cured. The name of this remarkable remedy is Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. I now use it altogether in my practice.—Leah M. D., Evansville, Ind. Feb14

GLASS HOUSES.—"They Who Live in Glass Houses Should Mind How They Cast Stones."—"The wicked flee when no one pursues."

It is amusing to see how tenderfooted certain blood remedy proprietors have become of late. They make much ado about "apes and imitators" when none are in sight. The proprietors of B. B. B. would say most emphatically that their remedy stands upon its own merit. Should we attempt to imitate, it would not be those who do not understand the modus operandi of that which they offer. Our own long experience in the profession precludes such an idea. The field for blood remedies is large and broad, affording ample room for all present aspirants. We do not desire to close the door against us. B. B. B. is the quickest remedy, does not contain mineral or vegetable poison, does not irritate and is in the field as an honorable competitor for public favor, and its success is without a parallel. Feb14

PLAIN QUESTIONS.—Mythical ideas are fanning the brow with the breath of prejudice, ignorance and humbuggery. Have you the remotest idea that your serofula was created by the use of potash and mercury? No matter what the cause, B. B. B. is the peer of all other remedies. Do you presume that your troublesome catarrh is the result of mineral poisoning? B. B. B. is the quickest remedy. Are your chronic ulcers and the boils and sores the result of potash and mercury? Medical gentlemen will not tell you so, but B. B. B. is the only sovereign remedy. Were your terrible kidney trouble created by mineral poisoning? Not a bit of it, but B. B. B. has proven to be a reliable remedy. Are your skin diseases, your eczema, dry tetter, etc., the effect of too much potash and mercury? The medical profession are the best judges, and they say nay, but B. B. B. makes more pronounced cures than all other preparations combined. Feb14

What You Want to Know.—Everybody wants an honest answer to this simple question:—What is the best medicine to regulate the bowels, cure constipation and biliousness, help the digestion and give strength to the whole system? People ask us this every day. We answer, Parker's Tonic. It is pleasant to the taste. All the children like it. Mothers all praise it. It will save a thousand times its cost in every family.—Editor Western Argus. Feb14

A Texas Tragedy.—COLEMAN, TEXAS, Feb. 9.—A tragic murder occurred Saturday night at the ranch of A. J. Nathan, ten miles from here. About dark a stranger rode up and without dismounting approached the doors and asked a woman to tell Dudley Henderson to come out as he wanted to see him. After Henderson appeared in the yard the stranger covered him with a revolver and said to several bystanders: "Now see me kill him." Before anyone could interfere he sent a bullet through Henderson's heart, and after Henderson had fallen the stranger fired four more bullets into his body. The stranger then rode away. He is a wealthy stockman residing fifty miles from Coleman. This man's wife and Henderson had been school mates in Georgia, and when she married the Texas Henderson followed. About a year ago by an accident the husband discovered his wife's unfaithfulness. He sent her back to Georgia and began his search for Henderson, which ended last night. Henderson and the unfaithful wife belong to highly respectable families.

Good news to the ladies! New and beautiful embroidery! We received this week one hundred pieces of the newest patterns of Hamburg and Batiste edging and insertings. The prettiest patterns ever seen in this city—real beauties. They were bought at hard time prices and are cheaper than ever known. Call and examine. No trouble to show goods at Ullman Brothers, Anniston.

Dissolution Notice.—WEAVER, ALA., Jan. 21, '82. J. L. Ledbetter and W. F. Farmer, this day bought out the interest of J. A. Haden in the firm of Ledbetter Bros., where they will continue the business under the same firm name assuming all indebtedness of the concern. All parties owing the firm will settle their notes and accounts with the same. Thanking the people for past favors, we hope to have a liberal share of their trade in the future. Very Respectfully, LEDBETTER BROS.

Elegant House for Sale.

The heirs of the late Mrs. E. L. Grant will sell the family residence in Jacksonville at a bargain, for purpose of division.

The building is of brick and contains eight rooms. It sits on an acre lot, about midway, facing South Main street, within a minute's walk of the public square, and has choice flower yard and shrubbery in front. The house is surrounded by fruit trees of the very finest varieties. The interior finish of the rooms is elegant, being furnished with marble mantles &c. All necessary outbuildings. It will be sold for less than the building it cost. It would make a most desirable summer residence. Jacksonville being the healthiest point in the State according to official report of the Surgeon General and health officers. South-east corner of the city, all beyond description for its natural scenery. Sulphur, Chalybeate, Epson, Freestone, Limestone, Magnesia and other mineral waters in the town or within a short drive of same. For further particulars address

Notice in Chancery.

Robert M. Hanna as Administrator of the estate of W. R. Hanna deceased, vs. E. J. Henderson et al.

In Chancery at Jacksonville, Alabama.

In this cause it is made to appear to the Register, by affidavit of R. L. Arnold, one of the solicitors of complaint, that E. J. Henderson is a non-resident of this State, residing in Bosque county State of Texas, Meridian post office; and further that, in the belief of said affiant, the said M. E. Henderson is over the age of twenty-one years.

It is therefore ordered by the Register, that publication be made in the Jacksonville Republican, a newspaper published in the town of Jacksonville, Alabama, for four consecutive weeks, requiring her, the said M. E. Henderson, to plead answer or demurrer to the Bill of Complaint in this cause, by the 6th day of March, 1885, or in thirty days thereafter a decree pro confesso may be taken against her.

Done at office, in the town of Jacksonville, Alabama, this 26th day of January A. D. 1885.

More Prohibition for Calhoun.

A bill passed the Legislature the last few days of the session that makes the prohibition law for this county much more stringent. It was drawn by Mr. Saffold Bernier, of Anniston, and was designed to stop the delivering of liquors in the county by the express companies C. O. D. but the Act does not stop at the accomplishment of this end. It goes further and absolutely prohibits any common carrier or other person from delivering any spirituous liquors within the county to any other person. If a man buys and pays for his wines in New York, this law prevents him from receiving them. He can only get them by smuggling them in, or by going for them personally and bringing them in himself. The law goes so far that, if not declared unconstitutional, it will likely make prohibition so distasteful that the end of the matter will be a total repeal of all our prohibitory legislation, and a reinstatement of the tipping shops, with their untold evils to the rising generation.

Inasmuch as the end aimed at was to put a stop to the condition of things that made the express offices wholesale liquor shops under the C. O. D. system, it looks as if that end might have been reached better by a statute simply declaring a delivery C. O. D. in this State a sale, within the meaning of the prohibitory law. Thus the evil could have been reached under the law in this county that the people have sanctioned at the ballot box. As the matter stands it can now be said we have a prohibition law the people have never been permitted to vote upon. It was such a cry as this that defeated the prohibition legislation in Limestone, Tallapoosa, Etowah and other counties. If prohibition fails in Calhoun and another session of the Legislature puts the dram shops upon us again, in response to popular demand, it may be charged up to this extreme amendment, which goes far beyond what the people voted for.

Nobody but the most visionary can hope by any sort of legislation to keep the men who habitually drink from getting liquor into the county. The most supporters of the law of 1882 hoped to accomplish was to close the tipping shops and prevent the boys from forming the habit of drinking.

The new jury law passed for the State excepts from its provisions the counties of Pike, Marshall, Tuscaloosa, Marion, Lawrence, Franklin, Blount, St. Clair, Etowah, Cleburne, Shelby, Walker, Winston, Lamar, Fayette, Lee, Dale, Coffee, Washington, Mobile, Crenshaw, Choctaw, Covington, Escambia, Marengo, Wilcox, Talladega, Tallapoosa, Perry, Dallas, Coosa, Bibb, Lowndes, Autauga, Cherokee, Russell. It will be seen that over one half the counties of the State were excepted from the provisions of the bill, by their Representatives, among them every county surrounding Calhoun. Calhoun remains in the bill, and hereafter juries in this county will be made up in accordance with the new law. It is too long for publication. The Probate Judge, Clerk and Sheriff in this county will no longer have the selection of the grand and petit jurors in this county. This duty is devolved upon the Commissioner's Court. This court prepares a list of good and competent men from which the jurors are to be drawn. Under the law there is no such thing as the Sheriff being allowed to make up a jury from the bystanders. This cuts off the professional jurymen, who hang about court and throws himself in the way of the Sheriff in order to have himself summoned as a jurymen, and the law in this respect is a good one. Under the law it seems impossible to pack a jury or even to get inferior men on the jury, if the Commissioners do their duty in the first instance. It is thought by some attorneys that the law is too cumbersome to work well. On this will depend the question of the wisdom of its passage. Its aim is in the right direction. It remains to be seen how it will work in its practical application.

Register of the Land office.

Mr. Burnett, who represented Cherokee county in the late session of the Legislature, in a letter to a home paper, says that Hon. Wm. P. Howell, of Cleburne county, will be an applicant for Register of the Land office at Montgomery and that he is well qualified for and deserving of the position. We wish to add our endorsement of Mr. Howell. No man in the State could be selected who would bring to the discharge of the duties of the office a greater rectitude of intention, a more untiring industry and a better practical knowledge of what would be required of him in the position. Mr. Howell, we are glad to say, has the endorsement of many of the foremost Democrats in the State for the place, and we hope President Cleveland will confer it upon him.

The Chattanooga Times has recently unearthed a most scandalous condition of things in one of the suburbs of that city. A negro preacher openly preached mixed marriages from his pulpit. In time his teachings bore fruit and now it is said more than thirty whites and blacks are married together in Chattanooga. All parties are liable to be sent to the penitentiary under the laws of Tennessee, including the minister who officiated, and it is said the miscegenationist preacher will be indicted in every case in which he has married whites and negroes. The parties also will all be indicted and sent to the penitentiary.

Mr. Curry's stock law bill for Talladega county, which would have exposed the farmers along the Southern boundary line of Calhoun county to great inconvenience and loss, did not get through the Legislature, thanks to Senator Alexander who arrested and held the bill in the Senate until adjournment.

Malaria Poison.

The drought in Southwest Georgia last spring dried up the wells, and we were compelled to use water from the creek on the plantation. The result was that all were troubled with chills and fever. I carried with me several bottles of Swift's Specific, and as long as I took it, I had perfect health. As soon as I ceased taking it, I like the rest, was afflicted with chills. When I resumed its use, I was all right again. We have used it in our family as an antidote for malaria poison for two or three years, and have never known it to fail in a single instance.

A Cripple Restored.

Some two years ago I received a boy (Lona White) into the Orphan's Home near Macon, from Columbus. He was one of the poorest creatures I have ever seen—nothing but skin and bone—crippled and deformed by Scrofula, which afflicted him from his birth. About eighteen months ago I commenced giving him Swift's Specific. After several bottles had been taken and no visible results to be seen, I began to despair, but continued the medicine. At last signs of improvement became apparent, and from that date to the present there has been constant improvement in both body and mind. He is now about fourteen years old, and is one of the brightest boys I have ever known. I honestly believe that he will ultimately outgrow the effects of this loathsome disease under the influence of Swift's Specific.

The two cases of erysipelas which were treated some two years ago with S. S. S. show no symptoms of return of the disease.

AN ADDRESS.

MONTGOMERY, ALA., Feb 17, 1885.
TO THE PEOPLE OF ALABAMA—
During the recent session of the General Assembly, the undersigned Senators and Representatives, with others (whose absence now prevents them from considering this paper) supported the bills known as railroad legislation.

It became evident early in the discussion that the real issues involved, according to our judgment would not be presented to the public owing to the partial reports of the proceedings of the General Assembly.

We therefore feel impelled from a high sense of public duty to briefly state to you the facts and merits of this matter. So far as we are personally concerned we are no more interested in it than any other equal number of citizens, but as Representatives we feel that it is our bounden duty to advise you of the existence of the facts which seem to us to be fraught with serious and impending peril. In a paper of this description we are compelled to briefly state conclusions and to assert what we assure you are the facts and invite you to investigate them for yourselves.

There are six points in Alabama, viz: Mobile, Montgomery, Selma, Eufaula, Anniston, and Birmingham, which enjoy freight rates usually from fifty to one hundred per cent below other places in the State without regard to the distance—the freight is hauled by railroads. These cities consequently are prospering and their merchants are becoming rich at the expense of the smaller towns and country people. The railroads claim the right to haul freight to these cities at low rates and to make up for these low rates by charging exorbitant rates to country towns and way stations. They claim the right and exercise it to unjustly discriminate in favor of these stations. They claim the right to make such rates of freight as their freight agents may decide, even though by so doing they unjustly discriminate against country towns and way stations and extort unjustly from individuals. We denied these claims on the part of the railroad companies and the abuses of any such powers by them. We contended that they had no legal or moral right to make such charges as would break down one point to build up another.

The law gives to them privileges which individuals do not have and cannot exercise. They can condemn your land and property by law and take it without your consent. They can even tear down your house if it stands in the way of their proposed railroad. If they tear down your house, they must, of course, pay for it, but still they can force you to sell at the price fixed.

They are not liable for their debts beyond their stock. Many of them have been chiefly built by the State, and by counties and towns in the State. On account of these and other privileges conferred upon them by law for public benefit, it has been decided by all the courts that they must be subject to legislative control, and must not oppress, extort and unjustly discriminate; and besides this, the Constitution of the State of Alabama expressly declares that it shall be the duty of the Legislature to pass laws to correct abuses, and prevent unjust discrimination and extortion on the part of railroads in this State.

A system of remorseless extortion and unjust discrimination has existed for many years, and still exists, against East Alabama in favor of Georgia towns, against Alabama citizens in favor of Georgia corporations own these Alabama railroads and their officers could not successfully deny the wrongs they perpetrate, but nevertheless they defy the State of Alabama and its laws to remedy these wrongs. By this system of wrong they extort from the citizens that portion of the State more than $100,000 annually than is paid for similar services in Georgia. In other portions of the State the same wrongs exist. The inadequacy of existing laws to correct these great public evils after an able, faithful and vigorous administration for four years, was clearly shown by actual experience.

It was to correct these abuses and prevent unjust discrimination that the railroad legislation was attempted by us as we were commanded to do by the constitution.

This legislation after a week's discussion passed the Senate, but was defeated in the House. The railroad companies of Alabama, Georgia, Tennessee and Kentucky combined to defeat this legislation. Their officers and agents were in force all around us during the passage of these bills. They did not attempt to defend the wrongs they were daily heaping upon the people of the State in the particular we have named, because they could not.

They stated that the legislation proposed was "hostile." We deny that it was hostile, unless to prevent unjust discrimination and extortion and to provide for equal and fair rates for all the people's hostility to the railroads. They stated that it was "harsh and extreme." We deny that it was. The same principles for which we contended in this proposed legislation passed the House of Representatives in Congress by a two-thirds vote at the present session of Congress.

Having performed to the best of our ability our duty under the circumstances in these matters to all the people of the State in the General Assembly, we have felt that it was equally our duty to make the plain and brief statement of facts herein set forth. In our humble estimation the rights of all the people of the State in these matters are as vital as the air we breathe.

some of the ablest lawyers in the State on the ground that it is inequable taxation, that it taxes some people's incomes and not others, and further, that it taxes some people more than others. The State tax on other property is sixty cents per hundred, while this law will ask two per cent on the incomes of money lent on mortgages—over three times the general tax on other people and property, and twice as much as the constitutional limit.

But leaving aside the constitutional aspect of the tax, it seems clearly inexpedient, impolitic and unwise. It stands as an additional burden upon the cost of money and as an obstacle to the investment of foreign money in aiding our people in improving our agricultural and other lands. The loan companies say that it will drive them out of business, if it is not removed. Of course now that the tax is on the statute books, litigation will begin to test its legality. The Governor says this will be good for the lawyers, and there is no denying the fact. But if the statute is declared null and void by the Supreme Court, the injustice to the loan companies, and really to the people also, will not be at all compensated by the advantage afforded a few attorneys. It temporarily, at least, upsets the loan business at the very season when all should go smoothly, discourages the increase of foreign investments, and stops the tendency of competition to lower the cost of money. It is to be hoped that the effects of the veto will be speedily undone by the courts.

Expressive Error.

With due respect for the usually good judgment of the chief magistrate, we cannot follow his conclusions in his veto of the attempt of the law making power to correct a blunder of its own.

There ought to be a difference in the discretionary use of the veto power as between revenue bills, seeking to avoid taxation, and all other kinds of legislative acts. The foundation for that degree of difference in this instance is very plain. The general assembly only sought to rectify where they had become fully persuaded they had before committed an error in the imposition of taxes. On the ground that the governor was powerless to have originally imposed the tax without the law, we think the wisest and more equitable course would have been to avoid the exercise of the veto against the law makers' regrets, so to speak, that they had only a month before misunderstood the true interests of their tax paying constituents, which they had at last come to realize. We repeat that the veto power is stretched when it touches revenue laws.—Birmingham Age.

Alabama News.

Dr. John M. Hayes, of Lauderdale county, has been appointed penitentiary physician.

The Governor on yesterday appointed Mr. Paul S. King to be tax collector of Lawrence county, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of the previous incumbent.

Renfro, who murdered a Mr. Blackman in Ozark county about two years ago, was recently arrested in Texas and taken to Eufaula, where he was lodged in jail. A reward of $100 had been offered for his arrest.

L. Manassas' store at Clayton, Ala., was closed by the sheriff under attachment of creditors, charging that Manassas, who broke lately, had disposed of his goods. His wife claims that the goods are hers. He owes about $20,000.

The whole number of bills introduced in the Senate during the session just closed was 437 and in the House 1,020. These figures include memorials and joint resolutions. The whole number of bills, memorials and joint resolutions which passed was 430.

The Monroe Journal says "there are more improvements being made in this county in the way of clearing lands, taking in and reclaiming old fields, building and repairing houses and fences than any other time since the war. Laborers are working well and every one seems hopeful for the future."

The Montgomery Advertiser's Birmingham correspondent writes: Birmingham is building great hopes on the completion of the roads from here through Walker county. They will be put through during the summer. The gap in the Georgia Pacific is just forty miles and it will certainly be built. The Birmingham and Sheffield road will also pass through Walker, and then the great coal beds in those mountains will be closely tributary to our mills and furnaces. Another road of which very little has been said is the East and West Narrow Gauge, which reaches into our State from Georgia and carries out coal and coke and cotton from the Coosa Valley.

The Republican.

February 28, 1885.

The Montgomery correspondent of the Birmingham Age says that Receiver Mabson has just returned from Washington and reports that Denson is sure to receive the unanimous endorsement of the Alabama delegation in Congress for U. S. District Attorney for the Northern and Middle Division of Alabama.

The very latest dispatches now make the President's cabinet to be: Bayard, Secretary of State.

Manning, Secretary of the Treasury; Lamar, Secretary of the Interior; Garland, Attorney-General; Vilas, Postmaster-General.

The war and naval portfolios are yet to be filled.

The Act dividing the State into nine judicial circuits takes effect in November, 1886. The following counties compose the seventh circuit: Talladega, Clay, Cleburne, St. Clair, Shelby and Jefferson.

When the new act goes into effect courts will be held in Calhoun on the fourth Monday after the fourth Monday in January and July and continue three weeks each term.

George Royer, a white man, was murdered near Ramnagano & Henderson's still house in Cleburne county, near the northeastern line of this county last Saturday. J. R. Davis was one of the men charged with the crime and he was arrested and on preliminary examination bound over to answer the charge.

Col. Ellis went from here to defend the prisoner. We learn from him that the character of evidence that connects Davis with the crime is purely circumstantial.

Those who have been so long laboring to make the law the overseer of the large planters of Alabama failed to get Mr. Wiley's bill through, but they got another through which in its application may be made to answer pretty much the same purpose. It is particularly aimed at that class of renters who get advances and then refuse to carry out their contract. While it will catch some rascals, the danger is that it may be employed to oppress the poor and unfortunate. We shall see.

Since the passage of the new prohibitory law the express company has ordered its agent here to deliver no liquors, even including that already received. When this order came there was a keg of apple brandy in the office for a man suffering with pulmonary disease and to whom a stimulant of this kind is absolutely essential. This brandy was ordered for him by a merchant here, not C. O. D., but with only the ordinary express charge of 25 cents upon it; yet it cannot be delivered.

The Governor's veto of the bill repealing the two per cent tax on foreign loan companies has borne its legitimate fruit in advancing the price of money 50 cents per hundred dollars per annum on five year loans. If the farmers refuse to pay this advance, the companies say they will withdraw from the State. The members of the Legislature who voted against the bill repealing this tax or voted to sustain the Governor's veto of the bill, will hear from the people if they ever run for an office again.

The Montgomery Advertiser reads us a truly fatherly correction for having noted last week the passage of "a joint resolution looking to an amendment of the constitution to authorize a tax of not more than one half of one per cent."

The printer who "set up" the article to which the Advertiser refers simply made an "out" of that part of the manuscript, stating the tax was for county road purposes. The Advertiser certainly did not suppose us so grossly ignorant as not to be aware of the present constitutional provision as to the tax rate.

The grand jury of Polk county recommended that the Cedar town Advertiser be paid ten dollars for publishing their general presentments, which were no longer than those which a Floyd county grand jury wanted as to publish for two dollars. The price offered by the Polk county jury was as low as the Advertiser could well afford to publish the presentments for. The price offered us would barely pay the compositor for setting the type.

The Republican has been printing the Grand Jury presentments for this county for nearly fifty years and has never charged the county a cent for the work.

There is lots of truth in the following, which suits this latitude: "You may be able to get a large city weekly, filled with murders, scandal cases, cock-fights, etc., for the same money that you pay for your local papers or less, but these city weeklies never advertise your country and make your property valuable. They do not help along your schools and churches; they do not publish your county news; they say nothing of you and your town and have no interest in you. A good newsy paper is as much advantage to a town or county as good schools. If one of our farmer friends should happen in one of those city offices he would find out in two minutes that he had no cordial welcome there, such as he would receive in a printing office at home. Stand by your home papers, they stand by you, and are ever on the look-out for your interest."

The funny man of the Atlanta Constitution gets the following neat retort off on the Norristown Herald:

"The Norristown Herald chides us for alluding to the editor of Godey's Lady's Book, and informs us that he has been dead three years. We are not at all astonished. It is nothing new for a Pennsylvanian publication to scuffle along without an editor. There are symptoms that the editor of the Norristown Herald has been dead three years."

This from the Atlanta Constitution will be interesting to Miss Wylie's many friends in Rome: "Miss Ella Wylie, of Jacksonville, Ala., a relative of Professor S. F. Snow, and a soprano of rare promise, will probably accept an engagement in the Atlanta choral. By special invitation she will sing with the First Baptist choir this evening."—Rome Bulletin.

AN ACT

To amend section 4370 of the code. Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Alabama, That section 4370 of the code be amended so as to read as follows: § 4370 (3714) Obtaining property by false pretences.—Any person who by any false pretence or token, and with the intent to injure or defraud, obtains from another any money or any personal property, or any person who has entered into a written contract with at the time intent to defraud, to do or to perform any act or service, and in consideration thereof obtains from the hirer money or other personal property, and who abandons the service of such hirer without just cause, without first repaying such money or other advances and with the intent to injure or defraud, must on conviction be punished as if he had stolen it.

Approved February 17th, 1885. ELLIS PHELIX, Secretary of State.

AN ACT

To prevent public drunkenness. Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Alabama, That any person who while intoxicated or drunk, appears in any public place, where one or more persons are present or at or within the curtilage of any private residence, not his own, where one or more persons are present, and manifest his or her drunken condition, by boisterous or indecent conduct, or rude and profane discourse, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not exceeding one hundred dollars.

Approved February 17th, 1885. ELLIS PHELIX, Secretary of State.

It is a fact that the people of Jacksonville ought to know that W. M. Lindsay, the furniture dealer of Anniston, frames all kinds of pictures at reasonable rates. If you have any fine engravings that need framing send them to him. To have engravings is now the proper thing. Chromos are no longer the thing, unless they are those of very costly character. A real fine engraving is in much better taste than the cheap old paintings now put upon the market.

Rev. Chas. F. Deems pastor of the celebrated "Church of the Strangers" in New York will deliver a lecture at Anniston Friday, March 13th s. p. m., in the Opera House, for the benefit of the M. E. Church and the completion of the parsonage at that place. His subject will be "Trifles." No one should miss the opportunity to hear this distinguished man, and we hope Jacksonville will be fully represented at the lecture. One fare only will be charged for the round trip. The admission fee will be 50 cents reserved seats 75 cents.

Tickets may be had here of Miss Ida Forney, Miss Carrie Frank or Miss Madison who form part of the committee.

REPEAL OF CROP LIEN LAW.

The bill looking to the repeal of the crop lien law has been virtually defeated in the same manner that a like bill was defeated by the legislature two years ago, viz: by excepting a number of counties from the operation of the bill. The bill now under consideration proposes to repeal simply the merchant's lien and leave the landlord's lien for advances in tact. The Senate has tacked on an amendment excepting about nineteen counties from the operation of the bill, in which the house at last report had failed to concur. It will be wise if they never concur. To abolish the merchant's lien and not repeal the landlord's lien for advances, places the tenant at the mercy of the landlord, and destroys the competition which under the present law exists between the landlord and the merchant for the tenant's trade.

It would undoubtedly be a good thing for the whole country if the crop lien laws for advances were repealed in toto; but to repeal it in part and leave the balance on our statute book would leave the tenant with no choice but to buy goods from his landlord at his landlord's own price. Let the lien for rent stand, that is just and right; but wipe out all for advances, or else don't disturb the law.—Largette Sun.

America Ahead.—Peculiar Characteristics of American Cases and How to Avoid Them.

In this age of haste and hurry, an age devoted to great projects and enterprises, the American people are taking the lead in the advancement of the sciences and arts. In these they deserve to take a high rank, and through the united works of millions, the American continent is fast being transformed from its untamed state and being placed on an equality with the older continents beyond the ocean. The American people are fast, under these influences, developing into a nervous, energetic race, remarkable for its vim and business qualifications; yet there is danger that in the course of years these very elements may combine to the ruin of the physical character of the people, and leave them feeble and altogether different from their forefathers. General debility is now more common than formerly, and seems to be on the increase among the masses. Many remedies have been extensively advertised for this wide-spread complaint, but none of these have been found to be of such general value as the remedy manufactured by Dr. S. B. Hartman, and named by him PERUNA.

Dr. S. B. Hartman, of Massillon, Stark county, Ohio, writes: "I have been troubled with general debility and nervous prostration for several years, and was induced to try PERUNA for his complaint, and that after using three bottles of the medicine he was greatly relieved. It braced him right up and gave him energy, and restored him to his youthful vigor. He ascribes his cure to PERUNA, and says it is a wonderful remedy."

Adolph Bakhaus & Co., Springfield, O., writes: "We are having a good sale for PERUNA. It sells as well as any medicine we have, and gives the very best satisfaction."

Mr. G. W. Nothman, Newtonville, Clermont County, Ohio, says: "I have been a great sufferer for the last six or seven years, with general debility and change of life. I was very much reduced. I have taken four bottles of PERUNA, which has restored me to perfect health and strength. I think PERUNA a safe and grand medicine."

ATLANTA DRUGGISTS.

Atlanta, October 12, 1884. We are now handling B. B. B. from its first introduction, a few months ago, and have never heard a word of dissatisfaction expressed relative to its merits, but have heard it very extravagantly praised by those who have used it. Its sale with it is rapidly increasing, and we now buy it in large quantities.

HOWARD & CANNON.

Wholesale Druggists. OFFICE OF JACOBS' PHARMACY, ATLANTA, GA. Six months ago we had no demand for B. B. B. but now our retail demand is such that we are forced to buy in two gross lots. We attribute the rapid and enormous demand to the comparative size and price of B. B. B. and its positive reputation. It sells well and gives wonderful results. Our sales have increased 50 per cent. within a few months. JACOBS' PHARMACY, 107 E. 1st St., Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA, June 12, 1885.

We have been handling B. B. B. for only a few months, and take pleasure in saying it is surpassing all other blood remedies. It sells well, gives our customers entire satisfaction, and we cheerfully recommend it in preference to any other blood purifier. ASHLEY & MOORE, Druggists.

SOUTH MAN'S PHARMACY.

Atlanta, June 12, 1885. Since I have been handling B. B. B. I have heard it praised by all who have used it. It grows so much in popularity, and its sales are so much increased, that I have to buy it in gross lots, as it sells out rapidly.

THEODORE MANN.

Atlanta, June 12, 1885. During the past few months I have been handling B. B. B. and have found it to be a most reliable and successful blood purifier. It sells well, gives our customers entire satisfaction, and we cheerfully recommend it in preference to any other blood purifier. ASHLEY & MOORE, Druggists.

Elegant House for Sale.

The heirs of the late Mrs. E. L. Grant will sell the family residence in Jacksonville at a bargain, for purpose of division. The building is of brick and contains eight rooms. It sits on an acre lot, about midway, facing South on the public square, and has a choice flower yard and shrubbery in front. The house is surrounded by fruit trees of the very finest varieties. The interior finish of the rooms is elegant, being furnished with marble mantels, etc. All necessary outbuildings. It will be sold for less than the building itself cost. It would make a most desirable Summer residence, Jacksonville being the healthiest point in the State according to official report of the State Health Officer, and being the only point in the State where the public square and health choice flower yard and shrubbery in front. CHAPTER XIII

On going out into the garden next morning, with a strange sense of being another person than herself, she beheld Jim leaning

Margery had been keeping a lookout for him, particularly wishing him not to enter the house, lest others should see the seriousness of her interview; and as soon as she heard whistles she went to the gate, which was out of view.

"But, ah, ma'am, all your troubles a straight backward in your memory, while I have troubles before as well as grief behind."

toward Jim knew no abatement; but she might call on her old acquaintance, Mr. Vine, Jim's partner, who would probably be going with the rest of the holiday folk and ask if she might accompany him in his morning trap. She had no sooner perceived the feasibility of this than she decided to call upon the old man the next morning.
